DETAILED ACTION

Specification

Content of Specification

- (a) Title of the Invention: See 37 CFR 1.72(a) and MPEP § 606. The title of the invention should be placed at the top of the first page of the specification unless the title is provided in an application data sheet. The title of the invention should be brief but technically accurate and descriptive, preferably from two to seven words may not contain more than 500 characters.
- (b) Cross-References to Related Applications: See 37 CFR 1.78 and MPEP § 201.11.
- (c) Statement Regarding Federally Sponsored Research and Development: See MPEP § 310.
- (d) Incorporation-By-Reference Of Material Submitted On a Compact Disc: The specification is required to include an incorporation-by-reference of electronic documents that are to become part of the permanent United States Patent and Trademark Office records in the file of a patent application. See 37 CFR 1.52(e) and MPEP § 608.05. Computer program listings (37 CFR 1.96(c)), "Sequence Listings" (37 CFR 1.821(c)), and tables having more than 50 pages of text were permitted as electronic documents on compact discs beginning on September 8, 2000.

Or alternatively, Reference to a "Microfiche Appendix": See MPEP § 608.05(a). "Microfiche Appendices" were accepted by the Office until March 1, 2001.
- (e) Background of the Invention: See MPEP § 608.01(c). The specification should set forth the Background of the Invention in two parts:
  - (1) Field of the Invention: A statement of the field of art to which the invention pertains. This statement may include a paraphrasing of the applicable U.S. patent classification definitions of the subject matter of the claimed invention. This item may also be titled "Technical Field."
  - (2) Description of the Related Art including information disclosed under 37 CFR 1.97 and 37 CFR 1.98: A description of the related art known to the applicant and including, if applicable, references to specific related art and problems involved in the prior art which are solved by the applicant's invention. This item may also be titled "Background Art."

Art Unit: 3721

- (f) Brief Summary of the Invention: See MPEP § 608.01(d). A brief summary or general statement of the invention as set forth in 37 CFR 1.73. The summary is separate and distinct from the abstract and is directed toward the invention rather than the disclosure as a whole. The summary may point out the advantages of the invention or how it solves problems previously existent in the prior art (and preferably indicated in the Background of the Invention). In chemical cases it should point out in general terms the utility of the invention. If possible, the nature and gist of the invention or the inventive concept should be set forth. Objects of the invention should be treated briefly and only to the extent that they contribute to an understanding of the invention.
- (g) Brief Description of the Several Views of the Drawing(s): See MPEP § 608.01(f). A reference to and brief description of the drawing(s) as set forth in 37 CFR 1.74.
- (h) Detailed Description of the Invention: See MPEP § 608.01(g). A description of the preferred embodiment(s) of the invention as required in 37 CFR 1.71. The description should be as short and specific as is necessary to describe the invention adequately and accurately. Where elements or groups of elements, compounds, and processes, which are conventional and generally widely known in the field of the invention described and their exact nature or type is not necessary for an understanding and use of the invention by a person skilled in the art, they should not be described in detail. However, where particularly complicated subject matter is involved or where the elements, compounds, or processes may not be commonly or widely known in the field, the specification should refer to another patent or readily available publication which adequately describes the subject matter.
- (i) Claim or Claims: See 37 CFR 1.75 and MPEP § 608.01(m). The claim or claims must commence on separate sheet (37 CFR 1.52(b)). Where a claim sets forth a plurality of elements or steps, each element or step of the claim should be separated by a line indentation. There may be plural indentations to further segregate subcombinations or related steps. See 37 CFR 1.75 and MPEP § 608.01(i)-(p).
- (j) Abstract of the Disclosure: See MPEP § 608.01(f). A brief narrative of the disclosure as a whole in a single paragraph of 150 words or less commencing on a separate sheet following the claims. In an international application which has entered the national stage (37 CFR 1.491(b)), the applicant need not submit an abstract commencing on a separate sheet if an abstract was published with the international application under PCT Article 21. The abstract that appears on the cover page of the pamphlet published by the International Bureau (IB) of the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO) is the abstract that will be used by the USPTO. See MPEP § 1893.03(e).

Art Unit: 3721

- (k) Sequence Listing. See 37 CFR 1.821-1.825 and MPEP §§ 2421-2431. The requirement for a sequence listing applies to all sequences disclosed in a given application, whether the sequences are claimed or not. See MPEP § 2421.02.

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: disclosure must include headings such as "Background of the Invention"; Brief Summary of the Invention; etc.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

(claim 1, lines 4 and 5) "a staggered cut....the stagger" is vague, indefinite, and/or confusingly worded because it is not clear what applicant is referring to by claiming "in a top view of the stagger";

(claim 2, lines 1 and 2) "the rear wall...the stagger" is vague, indefinite, and/or confusingly worded because it is not clear what applicant is referring to; etc.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Art Unit: 3721

Claims 1, 4, and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Sengewald (4,889,523).

Sengewald discloses process for manufacturing side fold sacks from a flat lying segment of a web characterized in that one end of the segment of a plastic tubular film is provided in such a manner with “a staggered cut or a staggered detachment along a perforation that in a top view of the stagger” (Figs. 1, 5, 9, and 13) the rear wall (Fig. 1; via 11) projects beyond the front wall (Fig. 1; via 12) and that the stagger is provided with an application of adhesive as far as into the area of a fold line (Fig. 5; via seam 35), which is located in the area of the edge of the front wall that has been cut free (Figs. 9 and 13; via cutter 41), and the stager is folded over the fold edge onto the front wall.

Regarding claim 4: the perforation lines are affixed on a flat lying web at intervals equal to the length of the segments of a web of plastic tubular film, before the segments are added to a side fold tubular web by folding the web sides so as to overlap and simultaneously inserting side folds and affixing a center weld, which rung lengthwise (Fig. 1, 2, 5, and 13).

Regarding claim 5: starting from the part that forms the rear wall the perforation lines can pass in steps over those parts that form the side folds into the part that forms the front wall, and that the transverse segments of the graduated perforation line are parallel to each other (Fig. 13).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 2 and 3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Sengewald (4,889,523) in view of West (442,839).

Sengewald discloses that the “rear wall projects, in a top view of the stagger”, beyond the side folds (Figs. 1, 5, 10, and 12). Sengewald does not disclose that the side folds project beyond the front wall. However, West discloses a bag with side folds (Fig. 1, via 3) project beyond the front wall (2).

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have modified Sengewald’s method for manufacturing side fold sacks by having the side folds project beyond the front wall, as suggested by West, in order to strengthen the edges of the rear wall of the bag.

Regarding claim 3: Sengewald discloses that the bottom layers (11) of the side folds project beyond the upper layers of the side folds (Fig. 1; via 20).

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Wood 4566927, Lehmacher 3857329, Cloud 3390617, Kugler 3385428, and Murch 3008569 disclose different method for manufacturing fold sacks bags.
